We offer the unusual opportunity to compare our extensive range of digital pianos with acoustic pianos and endeavour to provide as much information and advice to help you make an informed choice for you and your situation. Customers will often revisit us several times before making a final decision, as we offer a relaxed unpressured environment. Many of our customers recommend us to their friends, as do piano teachers and piano tuners. Customers travel from all over the country with the knowledge that they will purchase a good reliable, rewarding musical instrument, confident they will receive sensible expert advice, with excellent after sales service.
