We are Main agents for Steinmayer, Weber and Gors & Kallmannl have been involved with pianos since childhood. My passion for music and love of the pianoforte instrument is expressed in my fine work, of which I am very proud. People come to me for many different reasons. Everyone has different tastes and priorities. It may be size, tone, price or aesthetics that are important to you. That is why my pianos are of a very wide range of types. The only thing that does not vary is the quality of my work. I also carry out restoration work on treasured family heirloom pianos. No amount of advertising can compare to the personal recommendations that I receive from people who have seen and heard my work. From beautiful antique walnut designs to state-of-the-art new and modern ones. Whether you are a novice or a professional I will make it a matter of pride that I do my utmost to supply what you are looking for. If for any reason I am unable to fulfil your requirements I will endeavour to find someone who can. It is amazing how much quality of work and pricing can vary. Your computer can allow you to find prices that you didn't know could exist and a quality you didn't know you could afford. Please now view some examples of my work and my range of new pianos which are available for delivery anywhere in the world at your convenience, 24 hours a day 7 days per week. Thank you for viewing my Website; if there is anything that you think could improve it then please let me know. Delivery Free for first 100 Miles
