We have been Established 30 years and have a vast knowledge of the Music Industry from purchasing, advising, performing, supporting, managing, teaching and selling. We have 5 large stores with Music Schools and a huge warehouse in the Northwest of England and stock a full range of instruments to suit all ages and abilities. As Rock School and LCM (London College of Music) examination centres we have the ability and knowledges required to teach you to a high standard and give the correct advise on products. We are always considerate to our customer needs whether this is an individual, Music Service or County Council. We aim for long-term relationships wherever possible and take great pride in the business we get via recommendation.
