Specialists in Steinway, Blüthner, and Bechstein pianos

One of the regions foremost piano craftsmen, Andrew Giller has been working for over 20 years in East Anglia. Restoring fine English and German pianos at his workshop and studios in the idyllic countryside of the Norfolk/Suffolk border,

Andrew specialises in the care of the finest makes of piano, in particular those of Steinway, Bechstein, and Blüthner. Pianos for Hire

With four full size, "model D", Steinway concert grand pianos available for hire, as well as a selection of smaller instruments, Giller Pianos hire instruments for concerts by artists of the highest calibre. In recent years these have included John Lill, Melvyn Tan, Piers Lane, and jazz artist Julian Joseph, alongside many other world class players. Andrew Giller Concert Pianos are used extensively throughout Norfolk, Suffolk and East Anglia. Our Steinway model D pianos are seen and heard at international festivals, and have been played by world famous pianists. We hire pianos to concert clubs and music societies around East Anglia for recitals and performances of all kinds, as well as to festivals, theatres, wedding venues, and many others.

Our selection of Steinway pianos for hire includes three model D (full size) concert grands, as well as smaller model O and model B pianos for more intimate venues. All of our pianos are cared for and regularly serviced to a very high standard.

for our pianos include performances with The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, and

Recent engagements at the Latitude Festival, the Norfolk and Norwich Festival

Blickling Hall Summer Concerts, and at many other events nationally, and around the region.
