Suppliers of new and reconditioned acoustic pianos. Also digital and stage pianos. Pianists of all standards spend thousands of hours practicing their art so why would you buy a piano without playing it first? We are a real piano shop with no other instruments or sounds to distract you. With over 50 of the world's most popular pianos always on display you are sure to find exactly the right one. Our customers constantly tell us that our display is unrivalled with many of them travelling over 100 miles to see us. They also tell us that our website is a true and accurate example of what we have on display ensuring that you are not disappointed when you arrive. As musicians we are a mine of information and enjoy dealing with our customers in order to help them in every way possible. Our work is our hobby! It might be that you want to come in for a play, or you just want Oliver to show you a few Jazz chords or how to compose a song. He's superb at this and many of our customers have picked up a few playing tips this way. And in terms of discounts and prices, yes we always have some good offers on in store, we know our customers are always keen to buy at a good price. Please ask us for more details. So, we look forward to seeing you soon and talking about anything and everything related to pianos...
