Hello and thanks for reading! I teach in a relaxed and friendly style and can accommodate all levels and abilities. My students have the opportunity to learn on a full sized grand piano to maximise their learning. I'm a professional musician offering tuition in piano and music theory. I have completed courses at the Royal Academy of Music in London taking masterclasses with stars such as Gwilym Simcock, Gerard Presencer and Joe Lovano. While specialising in Jazz and improvisation I'm classically trained and can teach a wide variety of classical, romantic and baroque styles. I can teach the Classical or Jazz grades from 1 to 8 and up to diploma level. Everyone is welcome and I can teach over and around London. My approach is relaxed, friendly and encouraging, yet at the same time I like to guide my students to see them really improve and do well. My goal is to see them progress to a point where they have the most freedom to express themselves musically. I can give coaching towards the ABRSM grades 1 - 8 up to diploma level, practical and theory. I'm also able to prepare students for the ABRSM Jazz grades and the ABRSM Jazz diploma. Alternatively I'm happy to teach the Guildhall or Trinity exam syllabus, if the student prefers. My rate is £35 for an hour's lesson.
