The image above is Bernadette playing her Steinway Boston. Bernadette also has a second piano with a light touch which is just right for young children who are starting to play the piano. I teach piano and violin from my own home in Great Harwood from beginners to diploma level. I teach the Royal Academy Associated Board exam syllabus, with over twenty years experience. Some people however, wish to play simply for their own enjoyment. I enjoy teaching both children and adults in all types of music, not just classical. Keyboard, Piano, Violin & String Tuition With over 23 Years experience within the music teaching industry also as a professional player for the Royal Academy Of Music. Fully professional & reliable catering for all ages from beginner to diploma level.
