I am a skilled and experienced accompanist of singers, choirs and instrumentalists. I am classically trained and also work extensively in cabaret, with a particular interest in French and other European repertoire. I improvise fluently and imaginatively in various genres, transpose at sight and sight-read impeccably. My work ranges from Busoni's violin sonata (for the BBC), through dance classes at The Place, performances of Argentine tango and evenings of jazz standards to the Impro Musical. Several singers claim that I am their best accompanist. I look forward to meeting and working with you, whether for a performance, an audition, or an exam.
