London-born Daniel Benisty is a Pianist, Singer, Teacher, MD and Entertainer. After training in classical guitar and piano in his teens, Daniel undertook a postgraduate Jazz course at EJMA whilst living in Switzerland in his 20s. After travelling extensively and living abroad in Switzerland, France, Germany, Spain and USA for 12 years, Daniel returned in the early 2010s and has taken his performances to Music Festivals, Private Parties, Corporate Events, Weddings and Songwriting Showcases. As a teacher, he has helped dozens of (Piano and Singing) pupils with Grade exams, auditions and school entrance examinations. Fresh from appearances at Bestival 2015/16 on the Isle Of Wight, Daniel continues his residencies and performances in London either solo or with his Jazz band. Most weekends, Daniel is singing, or band-leading at private events. Enjoying occasional invitations to perform in Musical Theatre, Daniel recently took a lead role as the Italian Tenor Tito Merelli in a Players2 Production of "Lend Me a Tenor" to fantastic critical acclaim.

and will be producing "Sister Act" in April 2017 as Pianist / Musical Director. Daniel has teaching availability midweek for children and adults, aged 5 to 95.
