Adult or child you will love piano lessons with me. You will find out how to read music, understand rhythm, create your own music, express your individuality, play songs and tunes you like, and have lots of fun. I can help you use the latest technology and apps to aid your learning. We can do ABRSM exams or not. I am a positive reinforcement piano teacher I will always support and encourage you and we will have fun making music and playing the piano together.
