I am a qualified music teacher, specialising in piano and theory tuition. My teaching career began in 2000 while studying for my music degree at the University of York, and continued during my postgraduate studies. Since then I have worked as both class music teacher and Head of Department at secondary schools in Harrow and Hounslow, teaching music to KS3, GCSE and A Level students. I currently teach for Hillingdon Music Hub, have a current DBS certificate, and am a member of the Incorporated Society of Musicians (ISM). I have considerable experience of accompanying for ABRSM and Trinity College London examinations, as well as GCSE and A Level performances. Josephine
