If you're looking to hire a piano for your next event or concert, then look no further than Coach House Pianos. With more than thirty years of experience, we have been hiring out pianos for decades, from Yamaha uprights to Steinway grand pianos. An extensive range of instruments are available from us at all times, providing occasions such as concerts, recitals, corporate functions, photo shoots, weddings, recording sessions and television productions with quality pianos to ensure every event is a real success. Why choose Coach House Pianos? Trusted by hundreds of respected pianists, orchestras and collectors, Coach House Pianos is one of the leading piano specialists in Wales. From our Swansea base, we're proud to cover the whole of the country with our piano hiring service, helping you get the equipment you need for your next concert. Because we know that all of our customers are different, we take a flexible approach to piano hire. You could, for example, hire a piano for a nationwide tour, or simply for an evening to spend time playing music with your loved ones. As well as offering a truly bespoke piano hiring service, we're passionate about giving you the advice you need to play at your best. Our team is knowledgeable in a whole array of piano types and styles, so you can depend on us for guidance on tuning, acoustics and finding accessories to work with your hired piano. If you're ready to learn more about hiring from Coach House Pianos, then be sure to contact us to ask about our availability and delivery. Based in Swansea, we can deliver your piano across the region, and arrange delivery further afield if so required. What can we hire? At Coach House Pianos, we're proud to stock a broad range of pianos and accessories. Unlike some piano stockists and retailers, our pianos are available for viewing at our Carmarthen Road, Swansea showroom. And, because of this, we can offer a flexible piano hiring service, providing you with the instruments and accessories that you need for your event. Some of our most popular pianos include Steinway & Sons, Yamaha, Kawai, Bechstein, Schreiner & Sohne and Bösendorfer, but don't hesitate to get in touch if you're looking to hire a particular model or manufacturer. And, alongside our pianos, which are available to hire in a range of types, including upright, grand, digital and trans acoustic, you can also hire our piano accessories. Our accessories hire service includes piano stools, lamps, headphones, castor cups, covers, wheels and metronomes – everything you need for your instrument. Hire a piano today
