The Piano Studio Manchester & London is a private family-run studio based in South Manchester. For over 70 years and through three generations of musicians, we delivered our music knowledge by combining innovative and creative ways of teaching piano. We teach piano professionally by taking time to understand and develop individual artistic personality of our learners. Our professional team are passionate about giving piano lessons, sharing our skills. The Studio is open to all students from the beginners who are learning basic concepts in music or piano playing to advanced students who are preparing for competitions and auditions. We are committed to providing our students with high-quality, private musical education to reach their full potential and inspire them to make musical journey exceptional. In order to achieve this, we work from a well-balanced curriculum, developed through the years of our professional experience. At each level of our musical education process, we are providing custom tailored curriculum page 1 of 2
