Pianist Simon Jordan is the musician to take your wedding or event to the next level! Simon will play any tune, so you can personalise your day to match your own musical identity as a couple. Simon is a former Radio 2 and Radio 3 producer who has played since the age of five. He trained at the Royal Academy of Music and has performed around the world, at the Prime Minister's annual Christmas party and for the Queen and other European royalty. Simon is the only musician who will play the music YOU want to hear, and not make you pick from a list, as most other musicians do. He has perfect pitch and can also play the violin (also since age five). Simon teaches and writes about music, but loves nothing more than performing, and playing the right music at exactly the right time. Don't leave your music in the hands of amateurs - go to the expert and ask Simon for a quote today. SIMON JORDAN * Played at famous concert venues like the Royal Festival Hall in London (solo concertos), also had his work premiered on the South Bank and played at the Dorchester and Ritz Hotel, as well as on UK national radio programmes* Simon can play any tune - he is versatile enough to be at home playing classics, Bollywood, Broadway, classical and modern hits* One company chief exec flew over from the US to hear him play* Simon is fully self-contained with a Yamaha stage piano if required. A highly professional and versatile pianist who puts 100% energy into everything he does, as if it was his own wedding day.
