The owner, Stephen Willett is an experienced and expert piano mover. We move all upright pianos, pianolas, grand pianos up to 6.5ft in length. We also move small organs and harmoniums. We will take care of your instrument, your floors and your property. As a small business, we restrict our work to pianos valued at or under £10,000. We have all the necessary insurances. The owner plans and arranges every move and will send you a written quote setting out the important details of your move. We do not subcontract work or work for other removal companies. We can deliver to anywhere in Great Britain but mainly work in the South of England. We are registered with The Environment Agency as waste carriers and can remove and dispose of unwanted or unserviceable pianos. Sorry: We never pay for or rehome old pianos, but can only charge to dispose of them as waste. Please call me on 020 7720 0660 to discuss your move. You can also call me or WhatsApp any images and videos to 07958575122.
