I'm a specialist jazz piano teacher, and a performing jazz musician. I accept pupils of any age and with any level of piano playing experience. If you play a bit of jazz, I can help you improve. Pupils who have been taught some (or a lot of) classical piano, and would like to learn how to play jazz, are most welcome. I also teach pupils who are adept on other instruments to play jazz. I teach theory (classical or jazz) to any level. Location Lessons are given at my house in Hemingford Grey, Cambridgeshire, on my upright Yamaha piano. I also teach online via Skype or Zoom etc. Qualifications I have a London College of Music A(mus) diploma, which is a qualification in stylistic composition.
