North London Piano Moving has years of experience in piano removals. We are based in the borough of Camden but we can transport your acoustic grand and upright across the whole of Greater London and outside London. We work with all the most famous brands such as Kawai, Yamaha, Steinway, Bluthner, Bechstein, and many more. Our customers can have peace of mind knowing we have a skilled team dealing with removals, and we also store pianos and dispose of them. If you have a piano beyond repair, let us know and we can professionally and safely dispose of it. Or if you are having some work done to your house, let us know, and for a weekly fee, we can store your piano safely for you. Should you wish to make contact please provide us with the following info, so that we can get back to you with the best quote we can give you: What kind of piano is it- Upright or Grand- What model and brands Are there any stairs or steps in any of the locations Are there any access issues such as small entrances, low ceilings, narrow turning, or anything else? Do you require the floor to be protected? Do you think the
