Hello and welcome. Buying a piano is an investment and we hope we can help you choose your ideal piano.
Whether you're looking for a quality piano suitable for a beginner or a professional instrument for a more experienced musician we have a large ever-changing stock of upright and grand pianos, all with guarantees.
We specialise in reconditioned and restored secondhand acoustic upright and grand pianos. We also sell new acoustic upright and grand pianos and digital pianos.
If you own a piano we can recondition or restore your current piano or you can part-exchange it. If you're looking for a piano to entertain you we can supply and fit the PianoDisc systems to either your piano (if suitable) or to another piano of your choice.
